

The Evaluation Tribunal of Christ: Judgment of Works by Fire

WOOD represents human good: works performed in carnality, such as establishment truth and basic morality, but not rewardable.

HAY illustrates dead works: arrogant efforts to please God while in status quo carnality.

STRAW speaks of the production of evil: cosmic panaceas which attempt to solve the problems of life apart from the grace of God, doctrine, & divine establishment.

GOLD, SILVER, PRECIOUS STONES
WOOD, HAY, STRAW

Refining of GOLD exemplifies great purity or a test of steadfastness.

SILVER is the metal that signifies redemption through faith in Christ.

PRECIOUS STONES symbolize the production of the fruit of the Holy Spirit.
