

Zionophobia: A Concept of the Lake of Fire; Lifestyle of Error & Believing the Lie, 2 Thess 2:11; the Truth & the Lie Are Absolutes in the Angelic Conflict

79. Ironically both agnostic Progressives and reprobate Muslims will one day become citizens of a community that really does function under concepts of total equality and they will discover it where they least expect it to be.
80. Progressives generally don't believe there is a hell while Muslims do but believe they can avoid it by making a hajj to Mecca, visiting the Ka'aba, and smooching the "black stone"—Alhajar al-Aswad. A rude awakening awaits both in the lake of fire.
81. When referencing the lake of fire I have on occasion mentioned my impressions of how things operate politically among its inhabitants.
82. I once expressed these ideas in writing in response to a question posed by Berachah Church's Doctrinal Questionnaire whose successful completion is a requirement for ordination.
83. Here's my response to the latter half of the question "What is your concept of heaven and the Lake of Fire?":

Griffin, Joe. Doctrinal Questionnaire. In partial fulfillment of requirements for ordination at Berachah Church, Houston, Texas, March 23, 1979, 47-48:

My concept of the Lake of Fire, or the place of retribution for all the unsaved both angelic and human, is brought into focus by comments on "order" by Dr. Russell Kirk in his book The Roots of American Order (La Salle: Open Court Publishing Co., 1974). Selected comments from pages five through seven of Dr. Kirk's book read as follows:

This word "order" means a systematic and harmonious arrangement—whether in one's own character or in the commonwealth. Also "order" signifies the performance of certain duties and the enjoyment of certain rights in a community: thus we use the phrase "the civil social order." (p. 5)

If our souls are disordered, we fall into abnormality, unable to control our impulses. If our commonwealth is disordered, we fall into anarchy, every man's hand against every other man's.

Order is the first need of the soul. It is not possible for us to love what one ought to love, unless we recognize some principles of order by which to govern ourselves.

Order is the first need of the commonwealth. It is not possible for us to live in peace with one another, unless we recognize some principle of order by which to do justice.

The good society is marked by a high degree of order, justice, and freedom. Among these, order has primacy: for justice cannot be enforced until a tolerable civil social order is attained, nor can freedom be anything better than violence until order gives us laws. (p. 6)

Once revolution or war has demolished an established order, a people find it imperative to search for principles of order afresh, that they may survive. Once they have undone an old order, revolutionaries proceed to decree a new order—often an order harsher than the order they had overthrown. (p. 7)

From the above, my conception of retribution is that inhabitants of the Lake of Fire are in an eternal state of non-order both individually and collectively. Due to the complete absence of the laws of divine establishment, basic morality, and the restraining influence of the Holy Spirit, the situation is chaotic.

Collectively, since there is no order there is no authority and as a result no freedom. The absence of authority means that all are equal, none having any vested power over another. There are no laws and no system to establish any.

Individually, all seek their own disordered way. Since there is not one syllable of divine viewpoint to be found, all thought becomes massive and unrestrained human viewpoint resulting in absolute evil.

Environmentally, the heat from the Lake of Fire creates perpetual thirst and saps the energy necessary to seek the escape which does not exist.

The unbeliever, ensnared in a mental state of complete frustration, bewilderment, and disarray, stagger through an anfractuous maze filled with equally distraught souls, all seeking a thought which might offer some hope but no one can be found who can oblige.

Consequently, hell is nothing more than total equality taken to its ultimate extreme. The result is the elimination of all authority, without which there can be no order, no justice, and no freedom. It is no wonder that "there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth" (Matthew 8:12).

84. Although destined for a fiery end, the Progressive and Muslims are being used to delude the minds of the children they each control to destroy the traditional principles of our society.
85. The Progressives propagandize a vast majority of America's public-school children into the philosophy of equality that they believe will eventually merge all peoples into one generic culture.
86. The Muslims propagandize a vast majority of America's mosque-school children into the dogma of equality that will eventually merge all peoples into the Islamic religion.
87. Both have the deconstruction of Christianity, Bible doctrine, and Western culture as a part of their processes.
88. Again we discern the stamp of Luciferian influence upon this entire process. His strategy is (1) the destruction of client nation America by withholding divine viewpoint from the population, (2) use the First Amendment's "free exercise of religion" clause to promote an Islamic revolution, and (3) in so doing eliminate the United States' pro-Semitic foreign policy.
89. With the United State's neutralized Israel would be helpless and unable to defend herself against Islamic jihad.
90. When all establishment solutions fail the last hope is Pivot power. This is our current circumstance and an additional motivation to continue our pursuit of truth.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 - And so for this reason [ rejection of truth ] God sends them the modus operandi of delusion and deceit ...

Delusion in the sense of a misleading of the mind; a false belief; a belief in the lie; misknowledge; error in the sense that what is believed is the lie. This is a modus operandi of delusion and deceit which results in a lifestyle of error and involvement in Operation Gang aft Agley.

Next we have the aorist active infinitive of the verb:

πιστεύω, pisteuō -

aorist:           Constatative: refers to a fact or action extended over a period of time. This period of time by interpretation is the Tribulation but by application it is any generation of the Church Age.

Rejection of truth results in believing the lie and thus failure to believe in Christ for salvation during the Tribulation.

Rejection of truth results in believing the lie and thus failure to learn doctrine for deliverance during the Church Age.

active:           It is the unbeliever who produces the action of the verb by “believing the lie” in the Tribulation.

It is the believer who produces the action of the verb by “believing the lie” in the Church Age.

Collectively, the United States as a client nation is today involved in Operation Gang aft Agley. We believe the lie: Progressive ideology, while our enemy is assembling an arsenal of religious propaganda that will incite jihad upon the deluded unsuspecting masses.

PRINCIPLE:    When you believe the lie, you live the lie, and thus you go awry.

infinitive:       Actual result; if the population of a client nation rejects truth and believes the lie, it is inevitable that it will suffer divine discipline, historical destruction, and national disaster.

The word for “the lie” is the dative singular indirect object from:

ψεῦδος, pseudos -                   “the lie”

This is preceded by the definite article τῷ, tōi, which sets this lie apart from other classifications. This does not refer to believing just one isolated falsehood. This is the belief and application of an entire system of demonic thought which results in a lifestyle of error. These people live the lie, they execute the lie, they are the very embodiment of the lie.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 -           And so for this reason [ rejection of truth ] God sends them the modus operandi of delusion and deceit resulting in a lifestyle of error so that they believe the lie, live the lie, execute the lie, and embody the lie.

PRINCIPLES:

1.           Verse 11 says that God sends those who reject truth a modus operandi of delusion and error so that they believe the lie.
2.           That modus operandi is cosmos diabolicus: the cosmic system, which is characterized by arrogant rejection of truth, hatred for the truth, and lifestyle in opposition to the truth.
3.           God must allow there to be an alternative to truth. If all knowledge were absolute truth then error would be impossible.
4.           The Angelic Conflict centers around the challenge of human volition choosing truth over error.
5.           God has decreed to bless and reward those who believe the truth and utilize it in their decision-making processes.
6.           Application of doctrine to life in the areas of thought, decision, and action is the production of divine good.

7. God has decreed to judge and condemn those who reject truth and thus accept the lie as the basis for their decision-making.
8. Application of the lie results in a lifestyle of error and the execution of Satan's plan of human good and evil.
